Throughout the year, The Gadsden Times, magazines, website, Facebook, Twitter, Edmodo, cable television channels, other news media, or the school will photograph activities in which our students, faculty, staff, visitors, and volunteers participate. Full names are typically not included with these images. Please give us your permission to showcase your child. If there is any reason you DO NOT want images (photo or video) of your child to appear annually, please notify your school principal and submit the request in writing. Specific reasons for opting out are not required.

NOTE: W. E. Striplin Elementary School or Gadsden City Schools do not have distribution control of photos or videos taken at public activities or school events held in public venues.
